FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

New York: The Asia Week New York Association is delighted to announce their all-star roster for its highly anticipated 2025 edition. Featuring twenty-six renowned international galleries and six powerhouse auction houses—Bonhams, Christie’s, Doyle, Freeman’s|Hindman, Heritage Auctions, and Sotheby’s—this vibrant celebration of Asian art and culture, will run from March 13th through March 21st.

Heading into its 16th year, Asia Week New York continues to be the ultimate destination for collectors, curators and art enthusiasts from around the globe. This year, returning to the fold are the New York dealers Carole Davenport and SEIZAN Gallery New York, both Japanese specialists, while Lark Mason Associates will mount a special exhibition of Asian art.

“We always look forward to welcoming the many collectors, curators and art aficionados who have enthusiastically supported Asian art through the years,” says Brendan Lynch, chairman of Asia Week New York and co-director of Oliver Forge and Brendan Lynch, Ltd. in London.

From ancient treasures to contemporary masterpieces, the participating galleries will showcase an extraordinary selection of Asian porcelain, jewelry, textiles, paintings, ceramics, sculpture, bronzes, and prints, spanning the second millennium BCE to the present day. Here’s a sneak peek at this year’s stellar dealer roster, organized by specialty:
